INFORMATION AND CONSENT

I am pleased that you selected me as your therapist/counselor. This document is designed to inform you about my background and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

I am a counseling psychologist, marriage & family therapist, and nationally certified psychologist and board certified clinical psychotherapist (USA). I am a professional member of the American Counseling Association, American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists, the American Association of Christian Counselors, the Bahamas Psychological Association, the Association of Ethics and Spiritual Values in Counseling, the Board of Masters in Psychology, and the International Who's Who for Professional Management. I am also a member of the National Child Protection Council, Bahamas. My practice includes adults, couples, families and teenagers.

I hold a master's degree in Community Counseling with emphasis in marriage and family, and a masters' degree in Religion from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan, USA. I am also a Certified PREPARE/ENRICH Trainer and Counselor. PREPARE/ENRICH are counseling assessment inventories for engaged and pre marriage couples, young married couples, and senior married couples, using a scientific inventory to discover relationship strength and growth areas.

I have been a professional counseling psychologist since 1993 and have helped thousands of couples, families and individuals. I have practiced in Michigan and the Bahamas and have done couple and family consultations in St Maarten, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Florida, and England. I accept in my private practice only clients whom I believe have the capacity to resolve their own problems with my assistance. I believe that as people become more accepting of themselves, they are more capable of finding happiness and contentment in their lives. However, self-awareness and self-acceptance are goals that sometimes take a long time to achieve. Some clients need only a few counseling sessions to achieve these goals, whereas others may require months of every year of counseling. As a client you are in complete control and may end our counseling relationship at any point. I will be supportive of the decision. If counseling is successful, you should feel that you are able to face life's challenges in the future without my support or intervention.

Although our sessions might be very intimate psychologically, it is important for you to realize that we have a professional relationship rather than a personal one. Our contact will be limited to the paid sessions you have with me. Please do not invite me to social gatherings, offer gifts, or asked me to relate to you in any way other than in professional context of our counseling sessions. You will be best served if our relationship stays strictly professional and if our sessions concentrate exclusively on your concerns. However, it is important for you to remember that you are experiencing me only in my professional role.

I will keep confidential anything you say to me, with the following exceptions: (1) you direct me to tell someone else, (2) I determine you are a danger to yourself or others, or (3) I am ordered by a court to disclose information.
