INFORMATION AND CONSENT

I am pleased that you selected me as your therapist/counselor. This document is designed to inform you about my background and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship. I am a counseling psychologist, marriage & family therapist, and nationally certified psychologist and board-certified clinical psychotherapist (USA), a certified Prepare Enrich Counselor. I am a professional member of the American Counseling Association, American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists, The Bahamas Psychological Association, the Board of Masters in Psychology. My practice includes adults, couples, families and teenagers.

Although I am a cognitive behavioral therapist, my practice is integrative, which means I adjust my work to the individual's or couple's unique needs, using what I've learned from a variety of psychological approaches. I am also a Justice of the Peace and a Marriage Officer for the Commonwealth of The Bahamas. I hold a master's degree in Community Counseling with emphasis in marriage and family therapy, and a masters' degree in Religion from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan, USA.

I have been a professional counseling psychologist since 1993 and have helped thousands of couples, families and individuals. I have practiced in Michigan and the Bahamas and have done couple and family consultations in The Bahamas, St Maarten, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Florida, Cayman Islands, and England. I believe that as people become more accepting of themselves, they are more capable of finding happiness and contentment in their lives. However, self-awareness and self-acceptance are goals that sometimes take a long time to achieve. Some clients need only a few counseling sessions to achieve these goals, whereas others may require months or even years of counseling. As a client, you are in complete control and may end our counseling relationship at any point. If counseling is successful, you should feel that you are able to face life's challenges for the specific issues in the future without my support or intervention. Although our sessions might be very intimate psychologically, it is important for you to realize that we have a professional relationship rather than a personal one. Our contact will be limited to the paid sessions you have with me. Please do not invite me to social gatherings, offer gifts, or ask me to relate to you in any way other than the professional context of our counseling sessions. You will be best served if our relationship stays strictly professional and if our sessions concentrate exclusively on your concerns. However, it is important for you to remember that you are experiencing me only in my professional role.
